The Academy of the Protestant Church in Württemberg is the largest Christian Academy in Europe. The Protestant Academy organises the socio-political discourse by meetings, seminars, conferences. Through their activities they will participate, giving room to pressing issues, strengthen community spirit and commitment in society, to offer orientation for people looking for answers.

The Academy has devoted itself in a special way of working with professionals and the issues, problems and developments in professional references. There is a specific tradition in the field of education, with female and male workers as well as with the unemployed and people threatened by unemployment.

The thematic area of business, technology, work focuses on economic activity, the challenges of work and their socio-political environment. In the past years the following activities were at the forefront of this workspace:

- Conference "Test: Labour in times of crisis - Science meets Practice"
- Event series "Women on the path to greater equality of opportunity"
- Conference on "Flexible Work and Social Security - New Balance or bias?"
- Conference "Cosmopolitan household helpers' support - How does globalization reach the private household"
- Conference "Sustainable Welfare - Economic, European policy and ethical aspects of an ongoing debate"
- EU project for small and medium enterprises: "The society is getting older - your workforce too": events and seminars for HR managers, works councils and employees focusing occupational and personal action approaches
- Various meetings on employment policies in cooperation with the Institute for Employment Research (IAB) of the Federal Employment Agency
