Some useful advice

How to arrive to the hotel:

A taxi from the airport to the hotel costs around 25,00 €, while the direct bus costs 6,00 €. The bus leaves the passengers in the Plaça Catalunya, 5 minutes from the hotel (cf. city map on the following pages).

Ricard gives us some important advice:

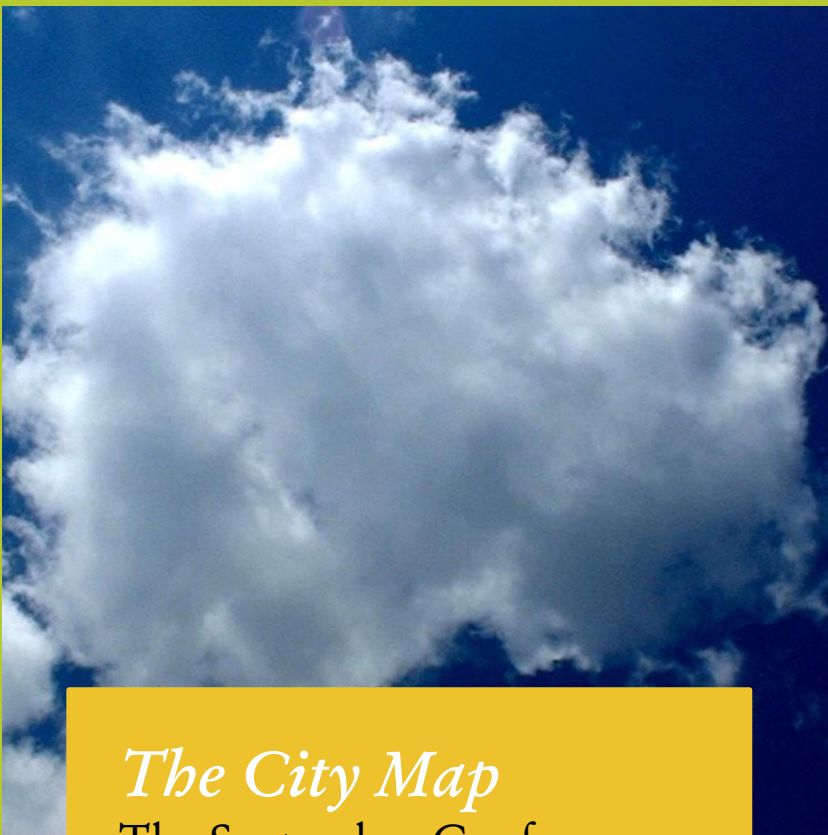

"It is very important to colleagues point out that unfortunately in Barcelona there is quit a lot of steeling. In international seminars we made repeatedly the experience that some guests had been robbed. Therefore, please: never leave your handbag, wallet, camera or other things of value out of your sight (do not let them hang at a chair when you stand up)! When you are approached by someone on the street, please hold your bags or wallets tight by your hand. In the evening you should consider to leave your handbag or camera in the hotel and take only the necessary things with you. I know it might sound a bit exaggerated, but it's a real lost of time (3-4 hours), if you have to report to the police. Our guests from Berlin lastly had such a bad experience... "
